

News Release

HEADQUARTERS UNITED STATES CENTRAL COMMAND
7115 South Boundary Boulevard
MacDill AFB, Fla. 33621-5101
Phone: (813) 529-0220

March 26, 2015
Release # 20150306

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Photo Release: Eagle Resolve exercises skills of international militaries across range of scenarios

MACDILL AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. - Exercise Eagle Resolve, ongoing in Kuwait through March, has featured demonstrations of military skill across a range of scenarios. These have included a simulated mass casualty event; a hostage rescue scenario; close quarters battle; visit, board, search and seizure training at sea; and water survival training.

Eagle Resolve includes more than 5,500 troops participating from 29 countries.

A sampling of photos from some of the exercise scenarios is included below. More photos and videos are posted to the Eagle Resolve page on the Defense Video and Imagery Distribution System at:

<https://www.dvidshub.net/feature/eagleresolve15#.VRK3TBwpCwZ>

-30-

Follow CENTCOM on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and Flickr.

Two Kuwaiti soldiers carry a simulated casualty March 23, 2015, in Kuwait during a chemical warhead attack scenario and mass casualty exercise as a part of Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015.

The exercise affords 29 partner nations the opportunity to address the regional challenges associated with asymmetric/unconventional warfare in a multinational environment. This is the Government of Kuwait's first time hosting Eagle Resolve, which is the premier Arabian Peninsula/Gulf Region exercise among the United States, Gulf Cooperation Council nations and other international partners. (U.S. Army photo by Staff Sgt. Grady Jones)

A member of the Kuwaiti Army's 94th Al-Yarmouk Mechanized Brigade mans his vehicle prior to the start of a simulated hostage rescue mission as part of Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 in Kuwait March 18, 2015. Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 affords 29 partner nations the opportunity to train together to address the regional challenges associated with asymmetric/unconventional warfare in a multinational environment. This is the Government of Kuwait's first time hosting Eagle Resolve, which is the premier Arabian Peninsula/Gulf Region exercise among the United States, Gulf Cooperation Council nations and other international partners. (U.S. Air Force photo by 1st Lt. Hope R. Cronin)

A 34th Combat Aviation Brigade UH-60 Black Hawk inserts a multinational response team during a simulated hostage rescue mission as part of Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 in Kuwait March 18, 2015. Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 affords 29 partner nations the opportunity to train together to address the regional challenges associated with asymmetric/unconventional warfare in a multinational environment. This is the Government of Kuwait's first time hosting Eagle Resolve, which is the premier Arabian Peninsula/Gulf Region exercise among the United States, Gulf Cooperation Council nations and other international partners. (U.S. Air Force photo by 1st Lt. Hope R. Cronin)

Jordanian, Kuwaiti, and Bangladeshi soldiers move under cover to search buildings during a simulated hostage rescue mission as part of Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 in Kuwait March 18, 2015. Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 affords 29 partner nations the opportunity to train together to address the regional challenges associated with asymmetric/unconventional warfare in a multinational environment. This is the Government of Kuwait's first time hosting Eagle Resolve, which is the premier Arabian Peninsula/Gulf Region exercise among the United States, Gulf Cooperation Council nations and other international partners. (U.S. Air Force photo by 1st Lt. Hope R. Cronin)

A multinational boarding team comprised of U.S. and Gulf Cooperation Council members speeds toward U.S. Army vessel “Corinth” in a U.S. rigid-hulled inflatable boat during visit, board, search and seizure training in the Arabian Gulf during Exercise Eagle Resolve March 17, 2015. Exercise Eagle Resolve 2015 affords 29 partner nations the opportunity to train together to address the regional challenges associated with asymmetric/unconventional warfare in a multinational environment. This is the government of Kuwait’s first time hosting Eagle Resolve, which is the premiere Arabian Peninsula/Gulf Region exercise among the United States, Gulf Cooperation Council nations and other international partners. (U.S. Air Force photo by Staff Sgt. Kathryn L. Lozier)