The 2015 Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (BUMED) CFC Kickoff and Charity Fair was a huge success! On October 15, 2015 BUMED at Defense Health Headquarters (DHHQ) in Falls Church, VA kicked off their 2015 CFC season! The CFC Kickoff and Charity Fair was a joint effort with the Defense Health Agency (DHA).

The Charity Fair attracted many employees throughout the day, raising awareness of what we make possible through our donations to the CFC. The BUMED Chair, CAPT Diggs, speaking on behalf of the two organizations, provided inspiring words. She emphasized the importance of making a difference, giving back to any of the 25,000 universal charities, and allowing your passion to direct you in your choice to donate. FORCM Prince, as the invited guest speaker, announced this year's goal of $43,138, conveyed how easy it was to donate and how even a small donation can make a difference and positive impact for many others.

A CORNER

D M - N

Campaign Managers, hopefully we will see you tomorrow for our DON 2015 CFC mid-campaign rally session. A calendar invite was sent to you mid-October to attend our 3 November event. If you did not receive this invite, it is still not too late to attend. You also should have received our agenda listing the important things we will be covering. In addition to getting updates from DoD Deputy VCMO, you will get to hear about some of the great ideas other Navy commands are doing while also sharing your own successes. This interactive session will give you an opportunity to ask questions and learn practical solutions to any issues that you have identified since the campaign started. Coffee and doughnuts are on us!
