COMBINED FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

Campaign of the Week ONI

The Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) held the first ever Combined Federal Campaign ONI Chess Tournament Oct 2016. A field of 16 participants was whittled down to two and the 2016 ONI "Show Some Love Super Bowl of Chess" Champion is Jose Gil who defeated David Brown in a very competitive match.

The tournament drew a large crowd of spectators over two days, including ONI's Commanding Officer and CFC Chairman, RADM Robert Sharp, USN. Tournament participants and onlookers were encouraged to enjoy the tournament and peruse the CFC Catalogs of Caring to find charitable organizations they would be interested in supporting. Keyworkers were on hand to answer questions and the event was a resounding success!

Gobble of the Week

"Success is finding satisfaction in giving a little more than you take."

-Christopher Reeve

Cause of the Week Veterans

Veterans are this week's cause of the week. When a veteran's service to our country is complete, they often face hardship as they return to civilian life. They make up 12 percent of the U.S. homeless population, and in 2014, 3.8 million of the 21.8 million U.S. veterans suffered from mental or physical disabilities as a result of their service.

Here's how you can make an impact:

- $25 pays for one month of electricity at a homeless shelter
- $75 helps wounded veterans with car repairs so they can get around to medical appointments
- $300 gives veterans career guidance to help secure jobs

If you are passionate about supporting our veterans, take a moment to make a pledge through the CFCNCA to charities working on this critical issue.
